

An Old Town Theatre
Company Production

OTTC

A Triple Bill
directed by Lynne Scragg,
Nancy A Heath & Michael Bull

TalkingHEADS

Three of Alan Bennett's
most touching monologues

A photograph of three women. On the left, a woman with short brown hair, wearing a dark jacket and a light blue scarf, representing 'A Woman of No Importance'. In the center, an older woman with short grey hair, wearing a dark green top and a pearl necklace, representing 'Soldiering On'. On the right, a woman with short brown hair, wearing a light blue cardigan, representing 'A Lady of Letters'.

A Woman of No Importance

Soldiering On

Muriel's lost her husband, her daughter's mentally ill and her son; well, enough said
The touching story of one woman's capacity to endure, forgive, and to rise above tragedy

A Lady of Letters

Image by Manor-Photography.com

7.30pm

Thursday 29th to Saturday 31st May 2008

£7.50 / £5 concessions

Buy 8 tickets at £7.50 and get 2 FREE

The Arts Centre

Devizes Road

Swindon

Box Office: 01793 614837

www.swindonweb.com/ottc